

WHEELS OF JUSTICE TOUR TEACH-IN

Impacts of War and Occupation In The Middle East “A First-Hand Accounting”

DATE: Friday August 15th

Presented By:

“Voices In The Wilderness”

Teach-In Location:

Rochester, MN

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

The Potluck Picnic

Starts at 5:00 PM at the West Picnic Shelter in Silver Lake Park. Bring something to share. Middle Eastern foods are encouraged.

The Teach-in

Starts at 7:00 PM at Peace Plaza which is behind the downtown mall. It will feature live music, a presentation by Voices in the Wilderness, and a candle light vigil. If it rains meet us at Assisi Heights 1001 14th St.

★ On Saturday August 16th at 7:30 AM, the Wheels of Justice Tour will be at the Farmers Market in downtown Rochester at 4th St SW & 3rd Ave SE just east of the Government Center.

★ We will have a table at all events where community groups can display their flyers.

"An embargo has advantages over armed conflict; no Americans need to die, no international furor over smart bombs incinerating people in shelters. It's simple and cheap, a noose tightens, and children and the aged and sick die in great numbers. This must be countered. 'Voices in the Wilderness' is doing just that - cutting the noose."

Daniel Berrigan

www.semnpeacemakers.org · www.ruralpeacemakers.org · www.justicewheels.org

SEMINNAP@aol.com · 507 – 289 – 4154